

Flight and Operational

Medical Technician (FOMT) Course

Course Description

The FOMT course, through practical scenarios, discussion, and hands on application, covers supporting processes required to complete flight medicine physical exams and provides a better understanding of the procedures used in the flight medicine clinic.

Uniform Requirements

Uniform requirement for this course is Mandatory Class B Uniform (Blues) on Monday's, and Airman Battle Uniform (ABU) for the rest of the week. Work gloves are mandatory. Some class activities are outdoors and seasonal weather gear is required.

Additional information may be found at the ETCA site:

<https://etca.randolph.af.mil/default1.asp>